

FINAL EVENT: GENOVA - JULY 21st 2023

Stradone S. Agostino 37 - Dipartimento Architettura e Design, UNIGE

EVENT SCHEDULE & SPEAKER DETAILS

Session 1 - The oMERO Project: the results

14:30	Registration, coffee & tea
15:00	Opening words
15:15	Fondazione Chiossone - The oMERO project: aims and perspectives
15:30	Si4Life and Trinity College Dublin: The results Part 1 – the Visual Disabilities Rehabilitator (VDR) profile
15:45	Coffee & tea
16:00	Si4Life and Università di Genova: The results Part 2 - the curriculum
16:15	Fondazione Chiossone - Lesson plan; Lietuvos Sveikatos Moksly Universitetas - Designer kit; LA MUT - Materials
16:30	End of session, coffee & tea

In parallel: Open Laboratory 14.30 - 16.30

REALTER: an augmented reality simulator of visual impairments – Prof. Silvio P. Sabatini - University of Genoa – DIBRIS

Session 2 - The oMERO Project: the perspectives

17:00	Round Table: "Training and occupational perspectives in rehabilitation of visual impaired in response to user needs" - Chairman Prof. Carlo Traverso, Unige
-------	---

Enabling people with chronic functional limitations: European Disability Forum, Dr. Giampiero Griffo

Person-centred rehabilitation care: professional care for equity, quality, ethics and patient safety: World Health Organization, Prof. Silvio Paolo Mariotti

The academic perspectives, coordinated by Unige, Prof. Angelo Schenone:

- Göteborgs Universitet, Prof. Inger Berndtsson - The new challenges in the training programs
- University of Massachusetts Boston, Prof. Laura Bozman - The international training opportunities

High tech Research and Technologies applied to rehabilitation: IIT, Prof. Giulio Sandini

The Health Care system companies:

- Polo IAPB - Prof. Filippo Cruciani - The Italian scenario of services for the rehabilitation of the visually impaired
- LA MUT - Dr. Sarah Chatanay - French public policies on the rehabilitation of the visually impaired

The role of Institutions and professional association:

- ICEVI EU and Babeş-Bolyai Universitatea, Dr. Andrea Hathazi - The role of organizations in the development of professional competences through Erasmus+ European projects
- ACVREP, Dr Kathleen Zeider - The USA certification of rehabilitation professionals

19:00 Drinks

20:00 Conference dinner